...as o'er life's sea

we roam...

The Soul of a Ship

The soul of a ship is a marvelous thing,
Not made of its wood or its steel,
But fashioned of memories and songs that men sing,
And fed by the passions men feel.
It's built of ambitions, of jealousy, strife,
Of friendship, of love and of fear;
It includes almost all of the makings of life;
It's nurtured on grumble ~ and cheer.

Our Parents ~

You have listened to our problems with patient understanding, inspired us with your confidence, and encouraged us when we were dispirited. In grateful appreciation for the help you have given us, we, the class of 1960, fondly dedicate this 1960 Archive to you.

OFFICERS

Superintendent
JOHN SOMES

East Windsor Board of Education

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1960

When you graduate in June, you will NOT be educated. A foundation for an education will have been laid. Your own future interests, desires, ambition, talents, and effort will determine what kind of edifice you build on that foundation - whether it is to be a richly furnished mansion, with many windows and doors opening to the world, or a poorly furnished hut with limited access to the many wonders surrounding you. It is never fully too late to decide.

Karen,

Remember all those lovely things we made in homemaking. Don't forget all the wonderful times we all had.

Good luck in the future.

Donna Andrews

To Karen,
Remember all the fun we had in Home Ec.
Thanks for all you have done for me!
(you know what I mean)

Lots of Luck

Jean Blodgett

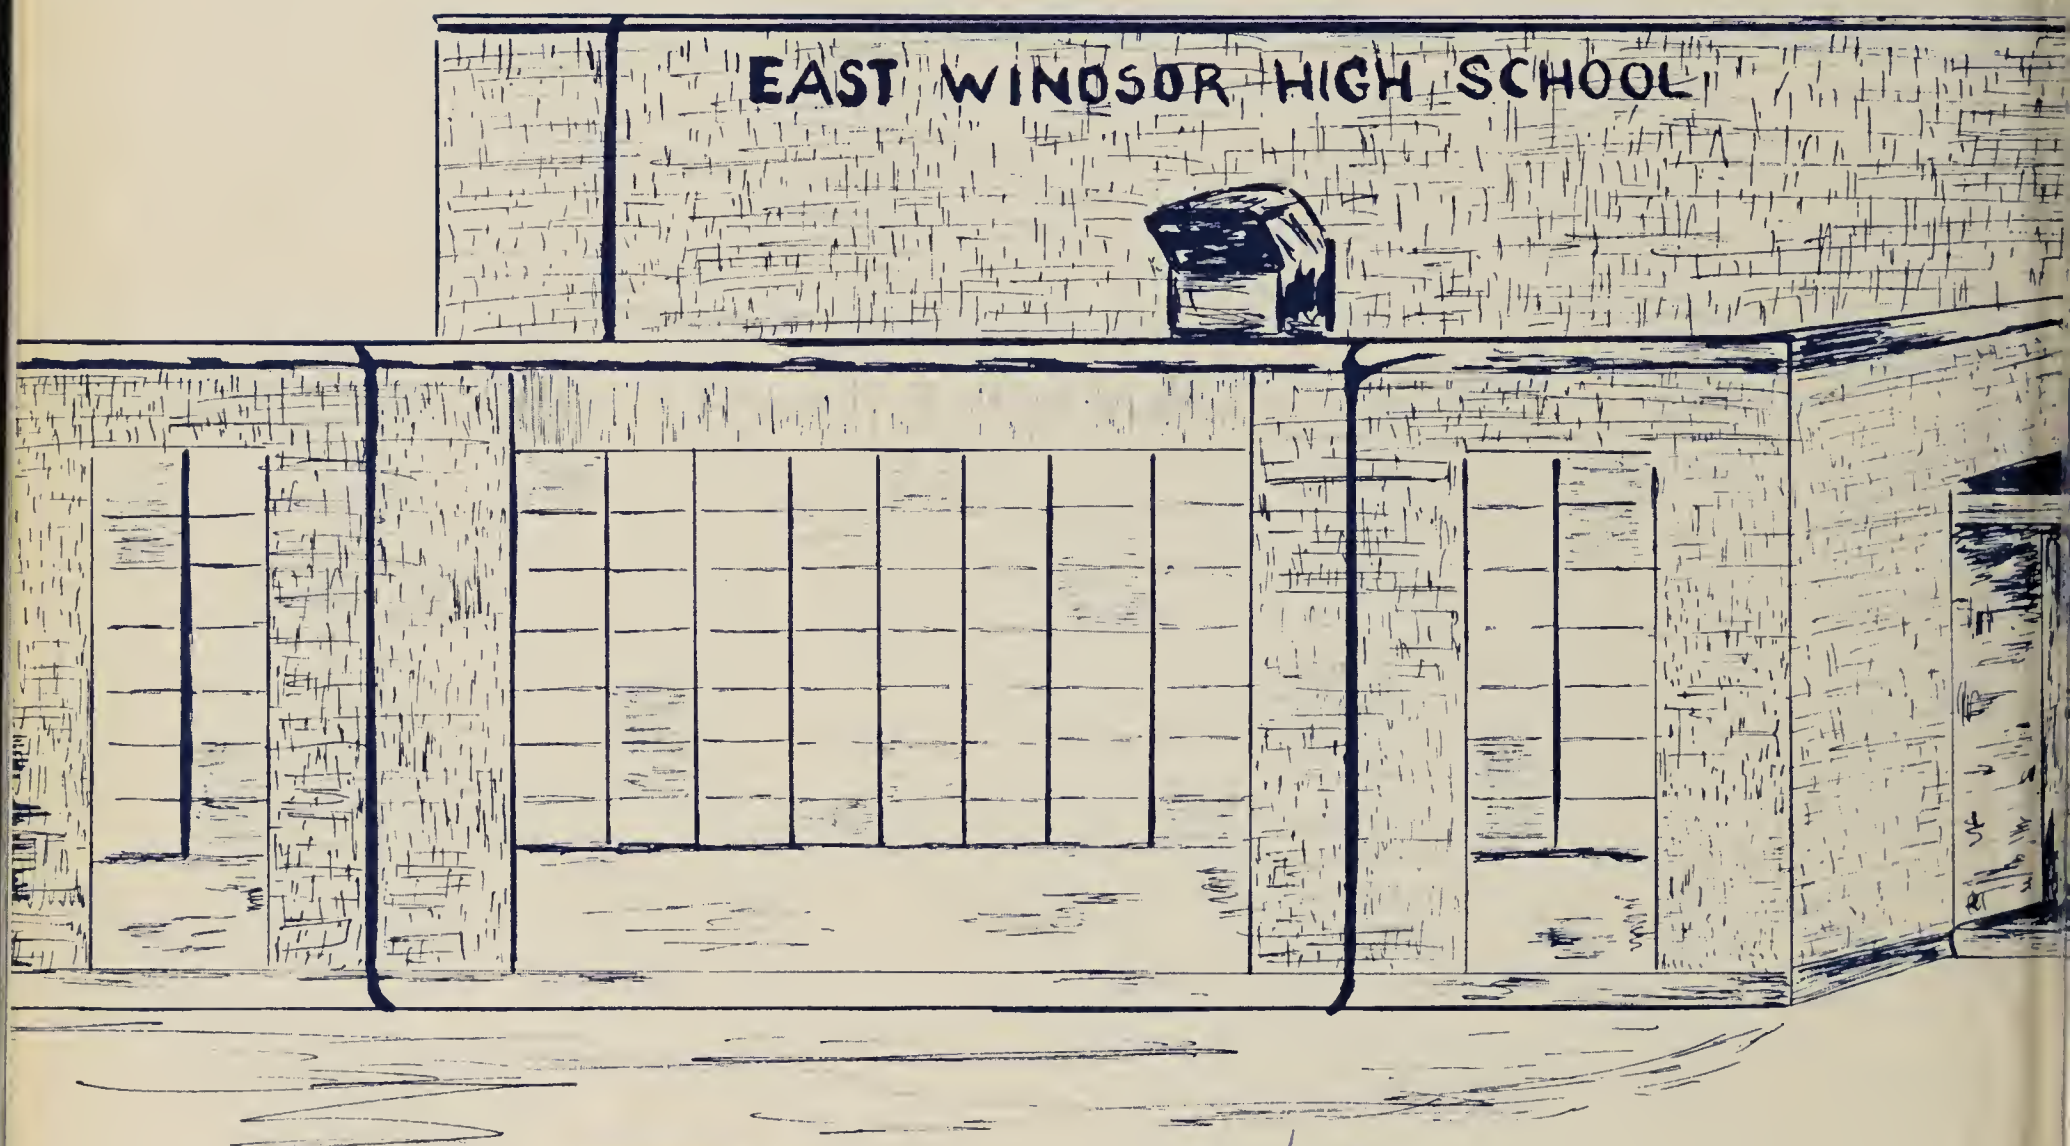

He loves you, he loves you,
He loves you almighty,
I wish Jon's pajamas
beside your nitey.
Now, don't get flustered,
don't get red, I mean on the clothesline, and not in bed.

A friend always

Karen,
Be careful of those nice guys. It'd never go with one myself.
Always much.

To Karen
Best Luck.
Remember the delicious Brownie log we ate in homemaking.

So Karen,
Good luck with the boys and Homecoming (remember can't you?)
Love, Karen
